MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT : 1966 Recruitment Brochure

1. Attached is the proposed text for CIA's 1966 Recruitment Brochure which has been prepared at [redacted] in New York.

25X1

2. Some editing of the proposed text will be necessary of course to tighten it in a few places and bring it in line with our current situation. Meanwhile, however, we must determine whether the general content of the text is acceptable. We would appreciate your examining the brochure from the point of view of its approach and particularly the advisability of including in the text examples of Agency activities which are reflective of past operations.

3. After obtaining your suggestions and those of Commander Moran and others, we propose to seek Mr. Helms' advice regarding the coverage in the proposed brochure and then prepare it for final review.

4. We would appreciate your giving this matter your priority attention.

Remarks:

Alan:

I have discussed the attached with [] [] He much prefers that you accompany the proposed brochure with your own views and advice. It would probably be worthwhile obtaining the views and comments of Security, Personnel, and George Moran so that the DDCI will have all pertinent views when he considers the matter.
